Please make note of the following terms and conditions:

- LAC TAships are not intended to serve as a primary form of employment or source of funding.
- The LAC program is funded by federal grants that prohibit us from paying tuition or fees for LAC TAs. Tuition and fees must be paid by the TA or his/her home department.
- LAC TAs are required to develop a website of course materials for their sections. A one-time payment of $1,000 will be withheld until you submit these materials to the LAC program by the specified deadline at the end of the semester.
- LAC TAs must participate in a LAC workshop during the academic year of their employment.

Please be aware that the Graduate School has strict policies limiting teaching loads during the academic year. Consult with the appropriate representative within your home department (Director of Graduate Study, TA Supervisor, etc.) to ensure that you do not exceed this limit, and have this person sign below to approve your LAC TA application:
