

Languages Across the Curriculum Information Session

Thursday, February 5, 2009 | 11:00am-12:30pm
FedEx Global Education Center, Rm 3009

UNC's Languages Across the Curriculum \(LAC\) Program cordially invites graduate students and faculty from any department to attend its annual information session.

This session provides an overview of UNC's LAC Program, which integrates the use of languages into interdisciplinary courses within the College of Arts and Sciences. Topics covered will include:

- Languages Across the Curriculum nationwide
- History and goals of UNC's LAC program
- LAC course models offered at UNC
- Responsibilities of UNC LAC instructors
- Application procedures for upcoming LAC TA positions
- UNC's Graduate Certificate in LAC Instruction

Participation in this workshop is strongly recommended for graduate students who wish to apply for upcoming LAC TA positions.

To register for this workshop, email the following information to lac@unc.edu:

- Name
- Home department
- Stage of graduate/professional career
- Foreign language(s) in which you are fluent
- Field(s) of research or professional interest

Other upcoming events in the Spring 2009 LAC Workshop Series:

LAC Instructional Workshop

Thursday, March 5, 2009 | 11:00am - 12:30pm
FedEx Global Education Center, 4th Floor

This best practices teaching workshop provides a forum for experienced and prospective LAC TAs to share ideas and instructional resources.

LAC Professional Development Workshop

Thursday, April 16, 2009 | 11:00am - 12:30pm
FedEx Global Education Center, 4th Floor

This professional development workshop is designed to assist UNC LAC TAs in marketing their teaching experience for the job search, and provide general advice for graduate students seeking to highlight their interdisciplinary and/or international teaching experience.

To learn more about LAC at UNC, email lac@unc.edu or visit www.unc.edu/lac.

This workshop series is sponsored by UNC's Center for European Studies, Center for Global Initiatives, Institute for the Study of the Americas, and African Studies Center and is made possible by Title VI grants from the US Department of Education.
