

TIFFANY L. GREEN

University of Wisconsin-Madison
Department of Population Health Sciences
Room 707 WARF Building
610 Walnut Street
Madison, WI 53726

Office: (608) 265-0897
Fax: (608) 263-2820
Cell: (608) 265-0897
Email: tlgreen2@wisc.edu

CURRENT POSITION

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Postdoctoral Fellow, Robert Wood Johnson Health and Society Scholars Program
University of Wisconsin-Madison, September 2007-present.

Research areas: Health economics, maternal and child health, pediatric asthma, health disparities

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL

PhD in Economics, December 2007.

Dissertation topic: "The Effect of Maternal Health Inputs on the Incidence of Pediatric Asthma Diagnosis"

Dissertation chair: Donna B. Gilleskie

Committee Members: William A. Darity, Jr., Helen Tauchen, Sally Stearns, E. Michael Foster

Academic Fields: Health Economics and Development Economics

FLORIDA A&M UNIVERSITY

BA in Economics, May 2001

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

Health disparities, Health economics, Child health, Public health history, Population health

GRANTS & AWARDS

Understanding Racial/Ethnic Differences in Childhood Health Outcomes. Proposal Funded by the NIH Health Disparities Research Loan Repayment Program-October 2008-June 2010

Institute of African-American Research (IAAR) Dissertation Fellow, Fall 2006-Spring 2007

Selected by National Science Foundation and Lindau Foundation to attend 2nd Annual Meeting of Economics Nobel Laureates, held in Lindau, Germany-August 2006.

UNC-CH Graduate Student Opportunity Fund Grant, August 2006

UNC-CH Graduate School Travel Grant, July 2005

Minority Scholars Grant-Fragile Families and Child Wellbeing Study, August 2004-May 2005

UNC-CH Latané Interdisciplinary Fellowship, Fall 2001-Fall 2002

RESEARCH PAPERS AND WORKS IN PROGRESS

Green, Tiffany L. (2008) "Infant Feeding and Childhood Asthma: Is Breast milk best?" (submitted October 2008)

Green, Tiffany L. (2008) "The Temporal Relationship Between Childhood Asthma and Obesity" (working paper)

Green, Tiffany L. and Hamilton, Tod G. (2008) "The Historical Effects of Colorism on the Health of African-Americans" (working paper)

Green, Tiffany L., Darity Jr., William A., Goldsmith, Art and Hamilton, Darrick. (2008). "The Impact of Skin Shade on Insurance Participation and Health Outcomes Among African-Americans" (working paper)

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF HEALTH ECONOMISTS (ASHE)

Biannual Meeting, Durham, NC, June 2008

Poster Session: "Infant Feeding and Childhood Asthma: Is Breast Milk best?"

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR FEMINIST ECONOMICS (IAFFE)

Annual Conference, Torino, Italy, June 2008

Oral Session: "Infant Feeding and Childhood Asthma: Is Breast Milk best?"

INTERNATIONAL HEALTH ECONOMICS ASSOCIATION (IHEA)

Biannual Conference, Barcelona, Spain, June 2005

Oral Session: "The Impact of Skin Shade on Insurance Participation and Health Outcomes among African-Americans" (also presented at the annual meeting of the Southern Economics Association)

Poster Session: "Understanding Child Health Outcomes among Mexican Immigrants"

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

DUKE UNIVERSITY

American Economic Association Minority Pipeline Summer Program

Teaching Assistant, Summer 2004 and Summer 2006

Held review sessions and assisted students with course material for econometrics and microeconomics courses.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL

Department of Economics

Economics Instructor, Introduction to Economics, Summer 2003 and Spring 2006

Taught beginning-level microeconomic and macroeconomic theory.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL

Department of Economics

Head Teaching Assistant for Introduction to Economics, Fall 2002-Spring 2003; Fall 2005

Taught two review sessions per week, performed various administrative duties for course.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Department of Population Health Sciences

Postdoctoral Fellow, Robert Wood Johnson Health and Society Scholars Program, September 2007-present.

Current Projects:

The Historical Effects of Colorism on the Health of U.S. Blacks

Engaged in compilation of 19th century U.S. Census data (including death records) as well as qualitative data to understand how differences in phenotype may have affected health outcomes among U.S. Blacks.

Understanding Racial Differences in Child Health Outcomes

Analyzing large secondary dataset (Early Childhood Longitudinal Study-Kindergarten Cohort) in order to understand the temporal relationships between asthma and overweight in U.S. Children

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL

Department of Economics

Research Assistant for Professor William A. Darity, Jr., Fall 2001 and Fall 2003-Spring 2004

Analyzed data from Luxembourg Income Study for research project examining income inequality across ethnic groups in an international context. Researched the effects of phenotype on physical outcomes among African-Americans.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL

Center for Urban and Regional Studies

Performed data collection and mapped various geographical regions using GIS for homeownership pilot study.

OTHER PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Reviewer for Economic Inquiry-June 2008

Member: International Health Economics Association, American Society of Health Economists, Committee on the Status of Women in the Economics Profession (CSWEP), International Association for Feminist Economics, Association for Public Policy Analysis and Management

REFERENCES

Professor John Mullahy, Department of Population Health Sciences, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Emeritus Professor David Kindig, Department of Population Health Sciences, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Professor Donna B. Gilleskie, Economics Department, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Professor William A. Darity, Jr., Sanford Institute of Public Policy, Duke University