

Thursday, October 26, 2006

5:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Toy Lounge, Dey Hall

The Center for European Studies and the Faculty of the Department of Romance Languages

Cordially invite you to the Dana B. Drake Distinguished Lecture

Christopher L. Miller

Frederick Clifford Ford Professor *of African American Studies and French

Yale University*

“The French Slave Trade and Moral Reckoning: Eugène Sue’s Atar-Gull”

Friday, October 27, 2006

9:00 a.m. - noon

Toy Lounge

Atar-Gull and Brulart. From Atar-Gull: A Nautical Tale, trans. William Henry Herbert (New York: W. F. Burgess, 1849).
Courtesy of the Yale University Library.

Prof. Miller will present a graduate seminar

“French Women
Writers and the Slave Trade”

*Recommended Reading: Ourika by Duras and by Staël, two oeuvres de jeunesse: “Mirza” and “Histoire de Pauline”
Both can be accessed via ARTFL and the BNF*