

Grant Recipients

Graduate Students
Faculty Recipients

This is the second page of our grant recipients feature. It contains brief synopses of faculty awards, including: research & travel grants and course-development awards for the upcoming academic year.

- ▶ Graduate Student Recipients
- ▶ Faculty Recipients

Sahar Amer, 2001 Recipient
Research & Travel Grant

Faculty Recipients

Sahar Amer | Olivier Brunet | Dan Gitterman | Liesbet Hooghe | Anne McNeil | Siegfried Mews | Don Reid | Roland Stephen |

European Union Fellowships

Olivier Brunet

Grant Title: European Union Visiting Scholar
Nature of Award: Yearlong visiting scholar position in US
Date/Year: Academic Year 2001-2
University: Duke University (primary) & University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (secondary)
Department: Political Science
Research: Monsieur Brunet hails from the European Commission where he has worked at developing and analysing EU social, educational, and environmental policy. His myriad experiences include research at the Directorate General on Employment and Social Affairs, work at the DG for Education and Culture, and a post at the DG for Environment. Monsieur Brunet will spend his time in the United States meeting with faculty members, graduate students, and the community. He will also give lectures to university and business audiences, participate in EU Center events, and conduct research on transatlantic relations.

Course Development Awards

Liesbet Hooghe

Grant Title: Course Development Grant
Nature of Award: EU and European course innovation and implementation
Date/Year: Academic Year 2001-2
University: University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Department: Political Science
Course: Professor Hooghe will develop an upper division course entitled: "Politics and Policy in the European Union."

Daniel Gitterman

Grant Title: Course Development Grant
Nature of Award: EU and European course innovation and implementation
Date/Year: Academic Year 2001-2
University: University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Department: Public Policy
Course: Professor Gitterman is working on creating several new EU tracks: a "Making Public policy" track focusing on the social policy dimension of the EU; a "Politics and the Policy process" track, which compares US federalism and multilevel governance in the EU; and "The New Institutionalism" track, exploring EU governance and the theoretical and empirical issues of governance.
 see also Research Travel Grant*

Research Travel Awards

Sahar Amer

Grant Title: Research Travel Grant
Nature of Award: Assistance for research-related travel
Date/Year: Academic Year 2001-2
University: University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Department: Romance Languages
Course: Professor Amer will travel to France for research related to an article on cultural diversity in contemporary France. She will also segue this research into the development of a pedagogical sourcebook for teaching about contemporary France. This project will be incorporated into the Center's website on Multicultural France-The Veil.

Daniel Gitterman

Grant Title: Research Travel Grant
Nature of Award: Assistance for research-related travel
Date/Year: Academic Year 2001-2
University: University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Department: Public Policy
Course: Professor Gitterman will use his grant to meet at the Max Planck Institute to coordinate an edited edition of papers compiled by the SSRC German and American young scholars program from 1999-2000.

* see also Course Development Award

Anne McNeil

Grant Title: Research Travel Grant
Nature of Award: Assistance for research-related travel
Date/Year: Academic Year 2001-2
University: University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Department: Music
Course: Professor McNeil will lead a student field trip to Florence, Italy to commemorate opera.

Siegfried Mews

Grant Title: Research Travel Grant
Nature of Award: Assistance for research-related travel
Date/Year: Academic Year 2001-2
University: University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Department: Germanic Languages
Course: Professor Mews will travel to Germany to pursue archival research for an ongoing project on Bertold Brecht.

Don Reid

Grant Title: Research Travel Grant
Nature of Award: Assistance for research-related travel
Date/Year: Academic Year 2001-2
University: University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Department: History
Course: Professor Reid will embark on a research trip to France where he will work on a manuscript dealing with the history and memory of the resistance in contemporary French political culture.

Roland Stephen

Grant Title: Research Travel Grant
Nature of Award: Assistance for research-related travel
Date/Year: Academic Year 2001-2
University: North Carolina State University
Department: Political Science
Course: Professor Stephen will use his travel grant to attend the MidWestern Political Science Association to present a paper.

  Back to top

◀ Graduate Student Info 