

THE UNIVERSITY of NORTH CAROLINA
at CHAPEL HILL

THIS WEEK IN GEOGRAPHY @ UNC

November 10-14, 2008

- Monday, November 10

- Tuesday, November 11

7pm: The world premiere of "The Virgin Comes to La Maldita Vecindad".
ERC Auditorium, Durham Tech Community College, Main Campus.

The documentary is directed by Altha Cravey, Elva Bishop and Javier Garcia and is part of the 22nd Latin American Film Festival which runs from Nov. 2 to the 21st on campuses across the Triangle.

<http://22ndfilmfestivalnc.googlepages.com/films2>

- Wednesday, November 12

3.30-5pm: Undergraduate Committee, Conference room.

3.30-5.00pm: Graduate Committee, 206 SA.

3:30-5:00pm: Contemporary Thailand Workshop. 4003 Global Education Center.
KATHERINE BOWIE, A Historical Perspective of Thai Village Democracies
KEVIN HEWISON, "Thai-Style Democracy": The Struggle for a Political Model (with Kengkij Kitirianglarp)

- Thursday, November 13

A candidate for a Distinguished Bowles Professorship in Geography will be visiting the Department. Presentation and meeting details to be posted Monday or Tuesday.

- Friday, November 14

A candidate for a Distinguished Bowles Professorship in Geography will be visiting the Department. Presentation and meeting details to be posted Monday or Tuesday.

2-3pm: Administrative Committee meeting 206 SA.

3.3.0-5.00pm. Geography Colloquium. Priscilla Wald, English Department at Duke University. 'The Outbreak Narrative: Disease Emergence and the Obscured Geography of Poverty.' 220 Saunders Hall.

Save the dates:

- Nov. 19. Faculty meeting 3.30-5.00pm, Conference Room.
- Nov. 21. 3.30-5.00, 220 Saunders. Joseph Palis, Geography Department @ UNC-CH
Homeless at Home: Philippine Cinema, Diaspora and the Politics of Dislocation.

This Week in Geography: Please send me details of departmental committee meetings, visitors, student exams, presentations, and other special events by Friday each week.