Spring Semester

NC-MSEN NASA SPACE Program

MSEN Day was held on the campus of Fayetteville State University in Fayetteville, NC on April 30, 2011. ECSU had 76 students and 7 chaperones in attendance. NC-MSEN students placed in the numerous categories entered. The NC-MSEN Program would like to give special recognition to Tabreah Tatem and Keenen Evans for receiving first place in the MSEN Day oratorical competition.

NC-MSEN NASA SPACE

On March 12, 2011 the NASA SPACE Program held its Spring Parent Workshop. Karen Rankins-Hinton counselor with the SPACE Program covered topics including preparation for college, financial aid and scholarships, college and graduate school admission, and STEM careers. Several NASA SPACE parents were in attendance.

Go-to-High-School, Go-to-College

On February 26, 2011 Je'aime Powell of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity presented, "Go-to-High-School, Go-to-College". This Alpha Phi Alpha led initiative concentrates on the importance of completing secondary and collegiate education as a road to advancement. Through the Go-to-High-School, Go-to-College educational initiative, students receive information and learn strategies that facilitate success. Fraternity members provide youth participants with excellent role models to emulate. In addition, this program, provides students and their families information about college entrance and financial aid. The counseling thrust is augmented by a vigorous scholarship program for college-bound youth.

Honors Day

The ECSU NC-MSEN Saturday Academy Program culminated with its Annual Honors Day Program on March 26, 2011. Mr. Jonathan Beasley was the featured speaker for the occasion. Mr. Beasley is from Edenton, NC. He is

John A. Holmes High School/NC School of Science and Mathematics graduate, former NC-MSEN student and current North Carolina State University student. Over 100 students received awards for academic excellence. A special luncheon was prepared by the Parents Involved for Excellence (PIE) Club of Perquimans County.
