PERSIST Fall Leadership Conference

The PERSIST students attended a leadership conference that was held in Chapel Hill on Saturday, October 2, 2010. The theme was entitled: Pathways to Teaching. The conference was a total success!

“Pathways to Teaching” was about giving students necessary information to make the transition from high school student, to college student, to teacher preparation program participant.

Ms. Jennifer Facciolini, The 2010-2011 NC Teacher of the Year, started the day off for the students, which was followed by rotating break-out sessions entitled “Thinking about Teaching and “College Matriculation: Requirements for Teaching.”

Mr. Danny Bland, Director of Teacher Recruitment and Coordinator for Project Teach, was instrumental to the success of the conference.

Others participating in the sessions were Ms. Tamikan Stubbs, a recent Burroughs Welcome Fund Science Teacher Award, Dr. Vincent Snipes from Winston Salem State, Dr. Elaine Franklin, Western Carolina, and a panel of freshmen through senior Teaching Fellows from NC State and North Carolina Central universities. Also, Mrs. Sarita Broadway of the College Foundation of North Carolina (CFNC0 participated.

2010 Fall Saturday Academy

FSU began the yearly program on September 25th. The PCP has 139 students currently enrolled for this semester. We have met twice already and anticipate more enrollment before this fall semester is completed.

The NASA S.P.A.C.E. This program is for current 9th graders in the program (Students Preparing to Advance into Careers in Engineering) is also continuing with 23 enrolled in the program. We also anticipate more to be joining this number.

FSU worked the opening day of the 2010 NC State Fair in Raleigh. Some pictures are on the reverse side.
