

"enduring freedoms":

CIVIL + IMMIGRANTS' RIGHTS
AFTER SEPTEMBER 11

7:00 pm thursday 29 NOVEMBER 2001

hanes art center auditorium

UNC @ Chapel Hill

Moderated by >> Elizabeth McLaughlin, Attorney

Featured Speakers >>

* Deborah Ross—executive director of the NC chapter of the ACLU to address the USA Patriot Bill.

* Al McSurely—a civil rights lawyer active in NC.

* Alex Galloway—a visual artist and cultural critic working on technologies of surveillance.

* Deborah Weissman—a UNC Law School Associate Professor and National Lawyers Guild, works on legal advocacy and civil rights.

* Derek Jennings—a columnist for the Independent Weekly.

* Lewis Pitts—an attorney and program director with Legal Services of NC.

Sponsors > PROGRESS: the progressive students, staff, + faculty @ UNC / Women's International League for Peace and Freedom / University Program in Cultural Studies, UNC / National Lawyers Guild / The Program in Public Law, Duke University School of Law / the Progressive Faculty Network (PFN) @ UNC / UNC Law School

exclusive parking for the event in the Hanes Lot, next to Memorial Hall (off of Cameron Avenue)