

Family, Work, and Welfare in Past and Present

---

Saturday, November 11

9:00am to 5:30pm

Institute for Arts and Humanities

---

I. Family, Work, and Welfare: Historical Perspectives

9:00 - 9:15 Welcome and Introduction

9:15 - 11:15 Mary Daly (Queen's University Belfast): Work, Family, & the History of the European Welfare States

Sonya Michel (University of Maryland): The Politics of Maternity, the Family, & the Role of Women in the Development of the American Welfare State

Comment: Janet Gornick (City University of New York, Baruch College)

Chair: Karen Hagemann (UNC, History)

---

II. Family, Work, and Welfare: Comparative Contemporary Perspectives

11:30 - 1:30 Janet Gornick (City University of New York, Baruch College): Institutions that Support Gender Egalitarianism in Parenthood & Employment

Jill Massino (Bowdoin College): Gender, the Family, & Welfare in Eastern Europe

Christiane Lemke (University of Hanover): Combining Work & Family - Policies of the EU

Comment: Mary Daly (Queen's University Belfast)

Chair: Chad Bryant (UNC, History)

---

III. Family, Work, & Fertility: A Major Problem of Contemporary Welfare States

2:30 - 4:30 Philip Morgan (Duke University): Welfare, Family, & Population Policy

Barbara Hobson (University of Stockholm): Women, Family Policy, & Fertility in a Comparative Perspective

Comment: Janet Gornick (City University of New York, Baruch College)

Chair: Jacquelyn Hall (UNC, History)

---

IV. Final Comments: Family, Work, and Welfare in Comparison - Consequences for the Future

4:45 - 5:30 Final Comments by Jane Jenson (University of Montreal) and

Alice Kessler-Harris (Columbia University)

Chair: John Stephens (UNC, Political Science)