

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK
November 12-16 2007

Hosted at the FedEx Global Education Center (corner of Pittsboro & McCauley Streets) unless otherwise noted

MONDAY

- 10- 11am FLAS Information Session 2008-2010
Each year, the US Department of Education awards Foreign Language Area Studies (FLAS) funding to Area Studies Centers at UNC. FLAS funds are awarded in a competitive process open to graduate students to pursue foreign language and area studies for professional purposes. FLAS funds are intended to support high-level second language acquisition among US professionals. Come learn more about FLAS funding in this information session.
- 4-5pm Photo Exhibition Opening Reception Atrium
Each year the Center for Global Initiatives hosts an amateur photography competition to celebrate International Education Week. Entries are judged on the ability to represent a cross-cultural/international experience and on artistic merit. Come view the winners of the 7th annual competition in an exhibition and reception at the FedEx Global Education Center. Don't miss this opportunity to view and learn the stories behind the winning entries and enjoy complimentary refreshments.

TUESDAY

- 12-1:30pm Identifying Funding Sources for Research and Projects Abroad 4003
The Grantsource Library and the Center for Global Initiatives invite students to a workshop on identifying funding sources for activities abroad, including outreach and projects. In this presentation you will learn how to 1) Identify UNC internal funding opportunities for global activities 2) Use multidisciplinary funding opportunity databases such as COS and the Foundation Directory Online 3) Set up customized funding alerts via COS 4) Search using specialized funding resources for international activities and 5) Find online and print proposal writing guides. For more information, email gs@unc.edu or phone 962-3463. Registration is required at http://cfx.research.unc.edu/res_classreg/browse_single.cfm?New=1&event_id=21292.
- 3-4pm FLAS Information Session 2008-2010
Each year, the US Department of Education awards Foreign Language Area Studies (FLAS) funding to Area Studies Centers at UNC. FLAS funds are awarded in a competitive process open to graduate students to pursue foreign language and area studies for professional purposes. FLAS funds are intended to support high-level second language acquisition among US professionals. Come learn more about FLAS funding in this information session.
- 5:30-7pm International Graduate Professional Schools and Careers Forum 1005
Learn about graduate school opportunities in international affairs through presentations by multiple professional schools and programs. Admissions representatives will be available to answer questions about programs offered, application requirements and general questions regarding graduate school in the field of international and public affairs.
- Featured Programs:
Columbia University - The School of International and Public Affairs
Georgetown University - The Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service
Johns Hopkins University - The Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies
Princeton University - The Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs
Tufts University - The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy
The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill - Transatlantic Masters Program

WEDNESDAY

- 8am-5pm Student Research Symposium 4003
Each Fall, the funding recipients of the Center for Global Initiatives present the findings from their internationally relevant research and work experiences. To view a list of past awardees and their research, visit <http://gi.unc.edu/research/index.html>.

10am-3pm Get-a-Passport Drive Carolina Union Room 1505
 Take advantage of this easy one-stop shopping opportunity to apply for or to renew a U.S. passport!! Officials from the U.S. Department of State will be on campus November 14 and 15 to accept passport applications (provided on site), and you can also get passport photos taken. For details about the event and required documentation, visit <http://global.unc.edu>.

3-4pm Class of '38 Summer Abroad Fellowship Information Session 2008
 For the 32nd consecutive year, the Class of 1938 is awarding summer abroad fellowships to U.S. sophomores and juniors interested in pursuing independent, career or personal projects outside the United States (U.S. citizens only). Administered by International Student and Scholar Services. Application deadline is February 25th. For more information visit http://oiss.unc.edu/services_programs/1938/index.html or email oiss@unc.edu.

7-9pm Los Sueños de Angélica/Angélica's Dreams-USA Auditorium
 Participate in the XXI Latin American Film Festival. Los Sueños de Angélica will be shown in the originated language with English subtitles. The film will be followed by a discussion with the director Rodrigo Dorfman. To learn more about the Latin American Film Festival, visit <http://www.ilas.unc.edu/film/fest2007/festcalendar.htm>.

THURSDAY

10am-3pm Get-a-Passport Drive 4003
 Take advantage of this easy one-stop shopping opportunity to apply for or to renew a U.S. passport!! Officials from the U.S. Department of State will be on campus November 14 and 15 to accept passport applications (provided on site), and you can also get passport photos taken. For details about the event and required documentation, visit <http://global.unc.edu>.

7-8:30pm Triangle Taiko – Japanese Drumming Auditorium
 Combining music and movements drawn from the martial arts, taiko is a high-energy tradition of drumming that originated in Japan and is exhilarating to watch and hear. "Taiko" means large drum, and the sound and sight of a taiko ensemble is hard to forget! Enjoy a dynamic free performance from Triangle Taiko, the only taiko ensemble in North Carolina.

FRIDAY

11am-2pm K-12 International Fair Atrium & Outside
 Please join us as UNC's Carolina Navigators program hosts Carborro High students who will share analytical posters on international topics that they've created with the help of UNC students involved in an APPLIES International Education service learning course. The event will also feature an engaging performance of Samoan dance from Smith Middle School students.

12-1:30pm TAM Roundtable Discussion 1009
 Listen to recent graduates of the TransAtlantic Masters (TAM) Program as they discuss their internships and work experiences. Graduates will talk about the international careers with NGOs and US federal service that they have pursued since completing their MA degrees. The discussion will focus on job searches, current work, and possible next steps. A question and answer session for attendees and graduates will follow the talks.

2-3:30pm Traditional Korean Music & Storytelling Graham Memorial Room 103
 Attend this special performance and lecture by Dr. Chan E. Park, associate professor of Korean Language, Literature and Performance Studies at Ohio State University. In her lecture Dr. Park, will examine the social, aesthetic and performative existence of traditional music in contemporary Korea, giving special attention to the p'ansori story-singing tradition. The program includes a lecture and demonstration followed by a question and answer period.

global.unc.edu
 (919) 962.2435

UNC
 GLOBAL