Produced by the Center for Slavic, Eurasian, and East European Studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill to assist students with Summer and Fall 2003 registration by providing a condensed list of courses offered in various departments relating to Slavic and East European Studies. This brochure is a preliminary listing of courses to be offered. It is not an official publication of the University Registrar's Office, which is the authority for resolution of any discrepancies or errors contained in this brochure.

FEATURED COURSE:

HUNGARIAN 101 - ELEMENTARY HUNGARIAN

For the first time ever, Hungarian will be offered at UNC-CH. Learn an Asian language spoken in the heart of Europe. Hungarian is a language with origins thousands of miles from present-day Hungary in the Ural Mountains of what is today Russia. It is a language spoken in one of the most rapidly-developing countries of the former communist Europe, a NATO member state on the threshold of joining the European Union. Fulfills the General College Foreign Language Requirement. No prerequisites.
