

Agenda

General Education Implementation Committee Meeting

Wednesday, October 8, 2003

3:00-5:00pm

011 Graham Memorial

1. Criteria Document Revisions: An amendment about Rhetoric; defining “The North Atlantic World”; other suggestions for revision
2. The Online Course Revision Form (Joe Bray)
3. Update on Third Information Session and Contacts with Departments
4. Departmental Summary of Unit’s Renumbering Scheme
5. Noting the Recently Revised and Approved Documents: Course Renumbering and General Education Identifiers
6. Course Numbers for Graduate Introduction and Intermediate Foreign Language Courses (David Lanier, Clayton Koelb, Glynis Cowell)
7. Update on Other Technology Issues: the Form for Faculty, the method for dealing with Prerequisites, the routing system for the Social Sciences Division (Leif Forer)
8. Oral Communication for students who place out of Rhetoric: Alternate methods for meeting it<sup>1</sup>

---

<sup>1</sup> The Administrative Boards asked the Implementation committee to: “establish a fair and effective means for students who place out of English Composition to get comparable instruction in oral communication. This might , for example, requiring these students to take one of the following: a First Year Seminar, an Honors course; a Capstone course, or a second Communications Intensive Connections course” (“Responding to ‘Making Connections’”, p. 4).