

WORLD VIEW
AN INTERNATIONAL PROGRAM
FOR EDUCATORS

AND

THE CONSORTIUM IN LATIN AMERICAN AND CARIBBEAN STUDIES AT UNC-CHAPEL HILL AND DUKE UNIVERSITY

Latin America and North Carolina

March 25-26, 2008

The Friday Center
University of North Carolina
at Chapel Hill

Tuesday, March 25

8:00 Check In and Registration

8:45 Welcome

9:00 Diaspora, Displacement, and Dreams: Rethinking the Meaning of the Latin American Experience

Louis Pérez

Institute for the Study of the Americas, UNC at Chapel Hill

10:15 Break

10:30 North Carolina's Exports to Mexico and the Cultural Imperative

David Stamey

State of North Carolina Mexico Office

11:30 Concurrent Sessions I: Understanding and Teaching Latin America

1. Brazil: Culture, History, and Politics

Tamera Marko

Consortium in Latin American and Caribbean Studies at UNC at Chapel Hill and Duke University

2. Education in Argentina

Mary Carroll Alexander

International Studies School at Garinger High

3. The Music of Latin America

Tom Moore

Department of Music, Duke University

4. Learning About Mexico

Panel moderated by Meredith Henderson

NC Center for International Understanding

5. Teaching Latin America Through Art

Beth Shaw McGuire

Ackland Art Museum, UNC at Chapel Hill

6. U.S. – Latin American Relations through the Prism of Costa Rican Democracy

Rwany Sibaja

Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools

7. Oaxaca: Politics in Southern Rural Mexico

Altha Cravey

Department of Geography, UNC at Chapel Hill

12:30 Lunch

1:30 Concurrent Sessions II: Understanding and Teaching Latin America and Current Issues and Educational Practices

- 1. ESL Update: K-12 Sheltered Instruction in the Classroom
Glenda Harrell
NC Department of Public Instruction
- 2. Soaring to New Heights: Keys to Academic Success for ELLs
Martha Dobson
NC Teacher Trainer, NC Teacher Academy
- 3. Building the Foundation by Building Partnerships: Latino Parent Involvement
Heather Whitehead
Harnett County Schools
- 4. Brazil: Culture, History, and Politics
Tamera Marko
Consortium in Latin American and Caribbean Studies at UNC at Chapel Hill and Duke University
- 5. Education in Argentina
Mary Carroll Alexander
International Studies at Garinger High
- 6. Cosmic Race, Rainbow People and Other Myths: The Racial Identity of Latinas and Latinos
Jorge Zeballos
Guilford College
- 7. Honduras Trip Orientation (for Honduras Study Trip participants only)
Carina Brossy
World View

2:30 Break

2:45 Latin America, Mexico, the U.S., and Immigration: Key Issues

Consul Armando Ortiz-Rocha
N.C. Mexican Consular Office

Nolo Martinez
Center for New North Carolinians

Axel Lluch
NC Office of the Governor, Hispanic/Latino Affairs

[Tuesday's program continued on next page]

4:00 Concurrent Sessions III: Current Issues and Educational Practices

Grades K-5

- 1. Model Spanish Immersion Program
Stephanie Cain, Greene County Schools
Angie Brady, Siler Elementary, Chatham County Schools

Grades K-12

- 2. Learning with Mexico: International School Partnerships
Panel moderated by Jessie Mendez
NC Center for International Understanding
- 3. ESL Update: K-12 Sheltered Instruction in the Classroom
Glenda Harrell
NC Department of Public Instruction
- 4. Soaring to New Heights: Keys to Academic Success for ELLs
Martha Dobson
NC Teacher Trainer
- 5. Building the Foundation by Building Partnerships: Latino Parent Involvement
Heather Whitehead
Harnett County Schools

Grades K-12 and Community College

- 6. Cross-Cultural Understanding
Cate Brubaker
Visiting International Faculty

Community College

- 7. Model Latino Initiatives at NC Community Colleges

5:30 Reception at Jean and Robert Phay's Residence

Join us at the Reception to continue conversations, meet colleagues, and enjoy drinks and light hors d'oeuvres.

Wednesday, March 26

- 8:00 Coffee, Juice, and Pastries
- 8:15 Post-1990 Demographic Change in the U.S.: Implications for Education
James Johnson
Kenan-Flagler Business School
UNC at Chapel Hill
- 9:45 Break
- 10:00 U.S. and Latin America
Lars Schoultz
Department of Political Science
UNC and Chapel Hill
- 11:00 Panel: Listening to the Voices of Hispanic Students
Ellen Graden, Meredith College
Lisa Huffman, Garner Magnet High School
Garner Magnet High and Wake Technical Community College students
- 12:00 Closing Remarks
- 12:15 Adjourn

CONTEMPORARY AFRICA SEMINAR BEGINS AT 1:00

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS
1.5 CEU credits will be awarded for successful completion of the program.

