

Europe and Russia in the Media Center Geography, Mapping, and Images

Online Cartographic Resources

Perry-Castañeda Library Map Collection (UT Arlington)

Very large collection of digital maps

<http://www.lib.utexas.edu/maps/>

David Rumsey Historical Map Collection

<http://www.davidrumsey.com>

Over 13,600 maps online

Focus: rare 18/19th century N and S America

Historic World maps

Europe, Asia, and Africa

Map History Gateway

From Retired Map Librarian, British Library, London

Annotated links to many, sites with online maps (Image Sites)

<http://www.maphistory.info/index.html>

National Geographic and ESRI Map Machine:

Interactive atlas

<http://plasma.nationalgeographic.com/mapmachine/index.html>

United Nations Cartographic Section

Good source for recent maps, not all countries are listed

<http://www.un.org/Depts/Cartographic/english/htmain.htm>

Interactive Globes

Google Earth

<http://earth.google.com/>

NASA World Wind

<http://worldwind.arc.nasa.gov/download.html>

ArcExplorer

<http://www.esri.com/software/arcgis/explorer/index.html>

Google Earth Lessons:

<http://gelessons.com/lessons/>

Google Earth 101 for Educators

http://www.teachinghacks.com/wiki/index.php?title=Google Earth 101 for Educators