

WORLD VIEW STUDY TOUR TO HONDURAS

9-day Tour
Tour 1: July 5-13, 2010
Tour 2: July 23-31, 2010

Hosted by
Heifer International Study Tours:
Travel to a Better World

Learn about Honduran life and culture while witnessing Heifer International's best practices for sustainable development in Central America. Tour the ancient Mayan city of Copán and see first hand one of the most well-preserved archaeological sites in the western world. Gain confidence to add global content to your teaching and help make your school or college more globally focused.

The estimated $1,850 cost of each tour includes:

- round-trip airfare from Raleigh-Durham International Airport
- 8 nights accommodations throughout Honduras (double occupancy)
- all meals in Honduras (does not include alcoholic beverages)
- all ground transfers and transportation in Honduras
- an introduction to Heifer's model of sustainable development
- visits to Heifer project sites
- entrance fees to cultural and historical sites and visits to schools
- services of Heifer guide/translator
- briefing materials
- Heifer backpack, journal, and nametag
- supplemental health insurance

For more information and an application, please visit:

www.unc.edu/world/study_visits.shtml

or contact: Carina Brossy
919/842-7793 or cbrossy@unc.edu

Applications must be submitted via email, fax, or mail by December 1, 2009

