EMBASSY OF SPAIN
Education Office

8th World View Seminar
Hispanics/Latinos in the Carolinas
March 21-22, 2006
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
EMBASSY OF SPAIN
Education Office

Resources for the Teaching of Spanish and Programs for Teachers and Students

NINES BARBOSA
Education Advisor
SC Department of Education
http://www.sgci.mec.es/usa/eng
Resources for the Teaching of Spanish

- Publication: “Materiales”
- Other teaching materials on line
- Other interesting links
Publication: “Materiales” magazine

Bi-annual publication for teachers of:
- Spanish as a Foreign Language
- Dual immersion programs

Source of classroom materials:
- Activities for the teaching of Spanish language and culture
- Thematically organized activities
- Standard-based materials
Publication: “Materiales”

All “Materiales” issues are available to teachers

- On line at http://www.sgci.mec.es/usa/materiales

- On paper: at state and national teachers’ conferences
Publication: “Materiales”

“All teachers of Spanish are welcome to submit their favorite classroom activities for publication.”
Other on-line teaching resources

- Teaching resources for elementary, middle and high schools:
  http://www.sgci.mec.es/usa/apoyo/index.shtml

- Other publications:
  http://www.sgci.mec.es/usa/deparenpar/index.shtml

MEC:REDELE: Red Eletrónica del Español http://www.sgci.mec.es/redele
Other interesting links

- Information on Spain and Latinamerican countries:
  Language, culture, institutions, tourism...
  http://www.sgci.mec.es/usa/enlaces/

- Essential links:
  Instituto Cervantes: http://www.cervantes.es/
  Instituto de Turismo de España: http://www.tourspain.es
Other links:

- Spanish newspapers: http://www.conspainmiami.org/diarios/diarios.htm
- Radio nacional de España: http://www.rne.es/r1
- Diccionario de la Real Academia de la Lengua española: http://buscon.rae.es/diccionario/drae.htm
Programs for Teachers and Students

- Visiting Teachers
- Spanish Schools
- International Spanish Academies
- Scholarships at American Universities
- Scholarships for Teaching Assistants
- Summer courses for American Teachers
- AP courses in Spain
- Quetzal Route
- Spanish Language and Culture Assistants
- American Language and Culture Assistants
Other programs of the Embassy of Spain

Young Hispanic Leaders Program

- was founded in 1998 at the initiative of the US-Spain Council
- created to allow future Hispanic leaders from the US to get to know Spain’s political, economic, social and cultural environment

http://www.spainemb.org/ingles/indexing.htm
www.joveneslidereshispanos.com
Question Time

? nines.barbosa@mec.es
http://www.sgci.mec.es/usa