Lesson 3: Policing: Roles, styles, and functions

- Please visit the following website and choose China, Japan, England, and France. Write a one page synopsis on the characteristics of police work in each of these countries:

  http://www.rohan.sdsu.edu/faculty/rinslow/index.html

- After viewing the site, please at least three major functions of each of the countries police departments.
- In America there is a concept called community policing. Please determine if any of the four countries have a related concept. If you find a related concept please write a paragraph or two describing the countries concept.

After researching the different countries please answer the following questions:

1. What are some police operational styles of police agencies from each of the countries?
2. Do any of the countries have such things as preventive patrol, directed patrol, and aggressive patrol concepts? Please explain each.
3. Is cybercrime an issue in each of the countries and how are each of them handling this contemporary problem?
4. What are some of the functions of traffic patrol in each of the countries and is it similar to the U.S.?