Lesson 4: Sentencing and Institutional Corrections

- Please visit the following websites to ascertain information for this assignment:

  http://www.washlaw.edu/forint/forintmain.html
  http://www.glin.gov/search.action

Please answer the following questions related to sentencing and institutional corrections:

1. What are the five general types of punishment currently being used in the United States (from your text) and what some types of punishment in the following countries; Japan, China, France, and England?
2. What are the five methods of execution currently used in the U.S. (from your text) and what are the forms of punishment in the countries listed above.
3. How is probation used in each of these countries?
4. Do these countries use imprisonment similar to the U.S.?
5. Are there similarities in the presence of racial and ethnic minorities in the prison systems of these countries?
6. What are some death penalty reforms (recent) that have been initiated in China?

Please visit the following site and write an impressionistic review of the prison system in the UK: (1 page)