1. What is a valid conclusion to the following syllogism? (1 point)

Major: YeX

Minor: YaZ

C.:

2. Define the following terms as fully as possible: genus, form, potentiality, matter, species, actuality. First define each in opposition with the term with which it is contrasted in Aristotle's writings. This will make three contrasts. Illustrate each of the three contrasts by means of an example, and mention the work with which the contrast is most associated. Then, most importantly, show the relation between these three contrasts. (4 points)
