SQUARE DANCING, PATTERNS, & NUMBERS

Directions: Imagine that you are looking at a group of square dancers from a bird’s eye view. In each box, draw a picture of a pattern that the dancers make during the square dance where they split into groups. Use a small circle to show where each dancer is standing. Then answer the questions to the right of your pictures.

Describe your pattern with words.

________________________________________

________________________________________

________________________________________

Describe your pattern with a number sentence.

Describe your pattern with words.

________________________________________

________________________________________

________________________________________

Describe your pattern with a number sentence.

Describe your pattern with words.

________________________________________

________________________________________

________________________________________

Describe your pattern with a number sentence.