WORLD VIEW
K-12 Global Education Symposium
October 20-21, 2010
The Friday Center for Continuing Education
UNC at Chapel Hill

Technology and Innovation in a Global Age

Co-sponsored by:

Schedule – at - a – Glance*

Wednesday, October 20

8:00  Check In and Registration

8:30  Welcome
Bruce Carney, Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost,
UNC at Chapel Hill
William Harrison, Chair,
North Carolina State Board of Education

8:45  From txtng Jersey Shore to Trekking Jakarta: Bridging Gaps of Interest,
Knowledge and Care with Digital Media
William Gaudelli, Professor and Author,
Teachers College, Columbia University

10:00 Break and Book signing with Professor Gaudelli
World Class: Teaching and Learning in Global Times

10:15 Creativity, iNC
Anita R. Brown-Graham, Director,
Institute for Emerging Issues, NC State University

* Subject to change. For the latest program updates and concurrent session descriptions visit: www.unc.edu/world/2010K12Symposium.htm
Concurrent Sessions I: Students in Action

GRADES K-12

1. Demystifying Cultural Boundaries, One Penny at a Time
   Kristina Drye and Ella Hill (Teacher: Brenda Drye)
   Piedmont High School, Union County Public Schools

2. Offering Students a World View in Preparation to Succeed as 21st Century Learners
   Ashley Dixon, Zachary Dixon, Haley Gregory, and Jazmyn McConnell
   (Teacher: Veronica Ann Duncan)
   Winding Springs Elementary School, Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools

3. Operation Belize
   Colton Burchette, Gracen Malpass, Amir McLeod, James O’Brien,
   Ann Ross Pender, Bryson Piscitelli, and Yasmin Rosa (Teacher: Amy Scheffel)
   Joyner Center for Spanish Language/I.B. Elementary, Wake Co. Public Schools

4. Student Voices
   Students from Mary Scroggs Elementary School,
   (Teachers: Karen Jeremiah and Melissa Stopa)
   Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools

GRADES K-5

5. Current Events
   Benton Fine, Kyle Hornik, Rohan Arora, and Gavin Rothwell
   (Teacher: Tommy Jones)
   McDougle Middle School, Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools

GRADES 5-8

6. Project-based Learning and Technology in the 21st Century Classroom
   Andrew Bonn and Caitrin Curtis (Principal: Ina D. Lane)
   CamTech High School, Camden County Schools

7. The Charlotte-Berlin International Connection
   Will Brzorad, Satin Clayton, and Joseph Torres
   (Teachers: Ann Laszewski and Pat Robson)
   Military and Global Leadership Academy, Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools

8. Poverty’s Real. We’re Helping
   JD Humphrey and Jack Kurtz (Teacher: William M. Ferriter)
   Salem Middle School, Wake County Public Schools

9. The Future of Education: Using Technology to Create and Enhance Student Learning
   Walker Arendas, Nicole Bracey, Achaia Dent, and Jake Hayworth
   (Teacher: David Hebert)
   Northern Middle School, Guilford County Schools

10. Group Work After the Bell: Using the Web to Collaborate After the School Day Ends
    Anna Aspenson, Silas Hill, Sarah Risley, and Jabari Rogers
    (Teacher: Jacson Lowe)
    Cedar Ridge High School, Orange County Schools

GRADES 9-12

11. Comparing Governments using 21st Century Skills
    Benjamin Gragg, Haylee Hepler, Cassidy Overcash, and Porche Parks
    (Teachers: Amie Furr and Zhang Peihong)
    Jesse C. Carson High School, Rowan-Salisbury Schools

* Subject to change. For the latest program updates and concurrent session descriptions visit: www.unc.edu/world/2010K12Symposium.htm
12:15  Lunch (provided)

1:30  Concurrent Sessions II: Global Education Strategies

GRADES K-12

1. Use of Media Technology for Global Teaching
   Gerald Waller, James Sprunt Community College

2. Are You Connected? Global Collaboration with ePals' LearningSpace
   Tiffanie Turner, ePals, Inc.

3. Friday Conversations - a Unique Way to Promote International Mindedness in Your School
   Jason Van Heukelum
   Michael Thier
   Mt. Mourne School, Iredell-Statesville Schools

4. Using Technology to Learn with the World, Not Just about It
   Diane Charlton Midness, iEARN-USA
   NOTE: Session II will be for K-5 educators, Session III for secondary educators.

5. First Contact: Beginning Global Connections
   Eric Cole, East McDowell Junior High School, McDowell County Schools

6. Examples of Tools that Enable Global Learning
   Matt Scully, Providence Day School

7. Poverty’s Real: Using MicroLending to Learn about the World
   William M. Ferriter
   Daniel Sudlow
   Salem Middle School, Wake County Public Schools

8. Challenge 20/20: Changing the World, Two Schools at a Time
   Paul Miller, National Association of Independent Schools

9. Using Media in the Classroom: Best Practices for Technology and Copyright
   William Cross
   Emily King
   University Libraries, UNC at Chapel Hill

10. From Static to Dynamic: Engaging Students with Global Issues
    Carina Brossy, World View

11. The Power of Fun: Bringing Games into the Classroom
    Matthew Z. Wood, Games 4 Learning Initiative, UNC at Chapel Hill

GRADES K-2

12. “Setting” the Stage with Fairy Tales
    Dawn Y. Moretz, Benton Heights Elementary School of the Arts, Union County Public Schools

GRADES 6-12

13. Education at Hand
    Susan Wells
    Lynne Goodhand
    Culbreth Middle School, Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools

14. Teaching Foreign Languages to the Digital Natives
    Margit Lanze, Cary Academy

* Subject to change. For the latest program updates and concurrent session descriptions visit: www.unc.edu/world/2010K12Symposium.htm
2:30  Break

2:45  Concurrent Sessions III: Global Education Strategies  [Repeat of Session II]

3:45  Team Meetings on Action Plans

AND

Alternate General Session, for those educators not meeting in teams:

Holding Teachers Accountable for Global Awareness in the NC Teacher Evaluation Process
Carolyn McKinney, Director of the NC Professional Teaching Standards Commission, NC Department of Public Instruction

5:00  Reception to Honor all Global Educators at the Home of Robert and Jean Phay

Thursday, October 21

8:00  Coffee, Juice, and Pastries

8:30  The Digital Natives are Restless, but Technology Isn’t the Answer
Bobby Hobgood, Director of Research & Development and Online Curriculum & Instruction, LEARN NC, UNC at Chapel Hill

9:30  The Pervasive Power of Games
Michael Angst, Chief Executive Officer, E-Line Media

10:30  Break

10:45  Information is Changing Learning
Adam Garry, Manager of Global Professional Learning, Dell

12:00  Next Steps and Adjournment
Robert Phay, World View

12:10  Book signing in the atrium with Adam Garry
Teaching the iGeneration: 5 Easy Ways to Introduce Essential Skills with Web 2.0 Tools

World View: An International Program for Educators, is a public service program of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. World View helps educators prepare students to succeed in an interconnected world by integrating global studies into every area of the curriculum.

For more information, please visit www.unc.edu/world or call 919/962-9264.