AMERICAN ECONOMIC ASSOCIATION COMMITTEE ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN IN THE ECONOMICS PROFESSION (CSWEP)

Workshop Announcement

The American Economic Association Committee on the Status of Women in the Economics Profession (CSWEP) is organizing a series of workshops aimed at mentoring junior faculty. The workshops will be held in conjunction with the ASSA meetings starting with San Diego in January 2004, and with regional association meetings, starting with the EEA meetings in Washington DC in February 2004. Applications for the workshops at the San Diego ASSA meetings are due by October 15, 2003. Applications for the workshops at the Washington EEA meetings are due by November 1, 2003.

For more information and application instructions, follow the link below.

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO AT BOULDER

Finance Division

Faculty Position in Real Estate

The Leeds School of Business and its Finance Division at the University of Colorado at Boulder seek to fill a Chair in Real Estate position starting Fall 2004. This is a tenured position that will carry the rank of associate or full professor. The chair holder should be a productive scholar with an interest in teaching and researching in the commercial real estate area, as well as, relationship building with the broader real estate community. The position is affiliated with the University's Real Estate Center (see: http://bus.colorado.edu/centers/RealEstate). The real estate program is strongly supported by the 270-member Council of real estate professionals.

JOB QUALIFICATIONS:

We seek applications and nominations of distinguished scholars whose records exhibit high quality real estate research and demonstrate excellence in teaching. Candidates should have obtained a Ph.D. or equivalent in real estate, finance, or a related field. Duties for this position include undergraduate and graduate student instruction, the pursuit of high quality research, and service to the School, University, and professional and academic communities relating to real estate.

ABOUT THE SCHOOL:

The University of Colorado and City of Boulder offer a rich intellectual, cultural, recreational, and supportive family environment. The entrepreneurial-based economy of the State, particularly in the Denver-Boulder vicinity, is thriving and private support to the Leeds School has increased dramatically. The University and Leeds School of Business are nationally recognized for the excellence of our programs, faculty, and students.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

The University of Colorado at Boulder is committed to diversity and equality in education and employment. We will begin reviewing applications immediately and will continue until filled. Early applications are encouraged. Interested persons should send printed copies of current vitae, list of references, copies of representative publications, working papers, and evidence of teaching performance to:
